

I truly benefit from the traffic and weather reports that XM provides. I travel across the US, and the only consistent signal I receive is XM. Since I do pay for these services, how can the National Association of Broadcasters dictate what I can listen to?

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160